Prosecuting Attorney Whittlesy filed the papers in new cases against Benjamin Johnson for carrying a concealed weapon and also in the case of the state vs. Israel Mandel and Kay Seder, charged with making trouble in the Hebrew synagogue on West Main street.

WILL CASE ON TRIAL IN SUPERIOR COURT

East Lyme Judge of Probate is Made the Defendant.

Judge John H. Keeler reserved decision in the superior court here on Tuesday afternoon after hearing arguments and the testimony in the $15,000 damage suit brought by Olivia Case against Austin J. Bush, judge of the probate court of East Lyme.

The case arises over the administration of the estate of Clara M. Root, who died in 1912 without a will. It is claimed, and the estate was settled that way. But in October, 1915, Maria L. Koszewicz of Brooklyn, N. Y., appeared before Judge Bush's court with a document purporting to be the will of Mrs. Root in which Miss Koszewicz was named as executrix.

The will was admitted and the previous administrator of the estate was removed. Olivia Case was a beneficiary under the first settlement of the estate.

RECOMMENDED BONUS FOR TEACHERS

School Board Will Advise Town Meeting to Grant Them $75 Bonus on Salaries—20 Per Cent. Raise For Janitors—Contracts For Repairs Are Awarded.

Recommendation to the town meeting of a $75 bonus on teachers' salaries for the coming year was voted on Tuesday evening at a meeting of the school board in the superintendent's office in the town hall. Those present were E. P. Bishop, H. M. Lerou, C. O. Murphy, W. P. McGarry, T. J. Kelly and E. J. Graham. The bonus was granted after much discussion by the board. This bonus will amount to slightly less than ten per cent. of the average salaries of the teachers. The board also voted to give the janitors a 20 per cent. increase in wages.

Resignations Presented.

Two resignations were received at the meeting and accepted. One was from Gordon A. Harvey, supervisor of the school in Montpelier, Vt., where he will be engaged in the same work. The other resignation was from Miss Katharine E. Murphy, who has been in charge of the kindergarten department of the High Street school.

Transfers Made.
